

“Our mission is to protect the property and lives of the residents and visitors of High Springs, help preserve the quality of life and contribute to economic development.”

Planning Services:

Land use planning is an important tool in developing an organized, well-functioning community such as High Springs. Location and design of sites as well as uses and specific site plan constraints are the main areas of interest to citizens with regards to planning. If you are interested in a project involving your home, business, or other property; please contact us we are always interested in helping you achieve your property development goals. For questions regarding land use regulations please visit our Land Development Code page or contact us at (386) 454-7322 Option 1.
